

Inspired music for authentic worship

As a singer and recording artist, Janice Stain shares the love of God through contemporary gospel music. Janice draws on her experience as a mother, physician, and artist to create and share music that's a powerful testament to the joy of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. She performs at churches, conferences, and other events throughout California.

With her band, Janice has released two albums and two music videos. Whether she's leading worship from a piano or speaking passionately from a platform, Janice Stain proclaims a message of inspiration and hope.
